

HEY.... YOU....the student who wants an INTERNSHIP...

An internship that is flexible, and also offers you real world experience.

LOOK...If you want an internship where you pick up the doughnuts, make copies and get bounced from one department to another: please do not read any further.

However, if you want an internship that will:

- Enhance your marketing and management skills
- Pay you a base and allow you to earn unlimited bonuses
- Allow you to work in your home town
- Provide you with leadership seminars
- Provide you with material to report to your professors
- Provide you with real-life business-to-business sales experience

Then you need to go to “www.SystemXDesigns.com/Careers” for more information. System X Designs is a progressive, yet proven website development and solutions company that will help students obtaining a Marketing, Management, and Public Relations degree. However, it is not limited to these degrees as any self-motivated student of business will greatly benefit.

When you graduate from college and start looking for work in the corporate world, what will separate you from your classmates? Wouldn't it be great to be able to say that you have real-world experience in:

- Business-to-Business sales
- Development and management of a sales territory
- Project Management (Generating Proposals, follow-up, and repeat business)
- Contact Resource Management systems (used by virtually all major sales forces)

If you aren't able to say this in your interviews for a career- your competitor will be...

Which one would you hire?

If this is what you are looking for, contact us today because we only have a limited number of slots available.
